About the Workshops

Transforming Aggression in Children – You will be introduced to the beliefs that one must hold to effectively transform aggression and the rules needed to constructively manage that aggression. Most importantly you will learn the effective techniques that will change aggressive behavior in children.

How to Talk to Kids about Sex – A workshop for parents of tots to teens. You will learn effective parental sexuality education and a five step technique for addressing any sexual issue and answering any sex question. An incredible question and answer segment will conclude the session. Get your questions ready!

Reducing Power Struggles with Children – The strategies for creating accountability with strong willed children is the focus of this workshop. Parents will learn effective techniques for eliminating power struggles with kids of any age.
