

Midland Reformed Church Presents:

Free Parenting Seminars

*Featuring parenting and relationship expert
Dr. Thomas Haller*

How to get your kids to do homework without having a nervous breakdown yourself

Wednesday November 2nd from 7-9:00pm

Tired of arguing, nagging, and struggling with your kids to get them to do their homework? Learn 3 crucial laws of homework and 8 usable strategies to help your children learn to manage and take responsibility for their homework.

Winning the War against Back Talk, Sass and Disrespect

Wednesday November 9th from 7-9:00pm

Are you tired of hearing the back talk and sass from your children? You will receive parental tools to make your home a back talk free zone. Learn effective interventions that teach children how to communicate wants and needs with respect.

Pre-registration is encouraged but not required. These seminars are being provided free of charge by Midland Reformed Church as a service to the community. Please contact MRC at 835-4000 or mrcoffice@att.net to reserve your spot today!

Bay City native Thomas Haller is a widely sought-after national and international presenter in the area of child behavior management. For more information on Dr. Haller visit www.thomashaller.com.